

St. Timothy's Episcopal Church

The WORD

Our 139th Year

For August 2007
Herndon, Virginia

"What's your vision for St. Timothy's?"

Our Stewardship ministers conducted a survey last year, soliciting our "visions" for St. Timothy's – What would you like to see your Church do? What should our priorities be? Your clergy, Music Director, Stewardship ministers, and Vestry have been reviewing your responses, as well as those that came from the two very clever presentations based on the Jeopardy game show. Your thoughts have been inspirational.

Our Stewardship ministers are now working on a vision budget for 2008, a financial plan that reflects these priorities. With this more clearly defined sense of mission we hope everyone who worships here will be excited about making a pledge to support God's work in our ministries of service and outreach, Christian education, pastoral care, hospitality, evangelism, accessibility, worship and music, buildings and grounds, communications, administration, missions, youth, and stewardship of creation (not an exhaustive list).

I invite you to share your dreams, your wishes, your inspirations, with the clergy or any member of the Stewardship Ministry (email Fr. Brad and I'll pass it on, bradr@saint-timothys.org). Please pray for faithful discernment and the generosity to fulfill God's will, for the glory of God, the well-being of God's people, the spread of God's love and grace.

Jr. Brad

Attention!

The new postal rates are forcing us to go to electronic distribution of the newsletter. Starting in September we will send your copy of the WORD to your e-mail address listed in the church directory. Please provide us with your current address so we can update the database. If you do not have e-mail and you wish to continue receiving the newsletter, please call or send a note to Carol at the office so we can continue to mail you a copy at first class rates.

Your presence makes a difference!

On my first day of college, my English professor stood before our class and said, "Today, everyone is present. Look around you. You are like actors in a play. If one of you is absent, no one else can fill your role exactly as you play it. Your presence makes a difference." We listened because we could tell that it really mattered to him that we had shown up. This professor was also realistic. He knew that we would miss some classes due to illness or oversleeping, but he insisted that if most of us were present most of the time, everyone would benefit—we'd have a much better class.

He was right. That class was one of the best. My professor's words came back to me as I heard Sunday School teachers reflect on the 2006-2007 program year. The teachers' message was clear: From the youngest class to the oldest, the students' presence made the difference. The Pre-K teachers remembered the best moments of their year as incarnational moments when people made Christ's love real to each other. One teacher inched across the floor on her belly to show her delighted three-year-olds how a caterpillar turns into a butterfly. She watched a friendship develop between two little girls, both new to St. Tim's, and heard them tell their parents that they wanted to come back to Sunday School to see their friends. A second Pre-K teacher said that her students helped her reconnect with her faith. She said, "it is a joy to receive their hugs, to listen to stories about home, and talk about all the ways that Jesus loves us... We learned to use glue sticks and sometimes we are even able to sit in a circle and listen to a story about Jesus – but only if it has lots of singing and a chance to act out the story and pretend we are Jesus."

The high school teachers did not have stories about glue sticks, but their most memorable classes were also incarnational. They contrasted how they felt on the day when they showed up with two dozen donuts and had to cancel class because there were so few students with the joyful day when they taught the "Loving Your Enemies" lesson. On the second day, they played an interactive game and had to start it over three times as more and more students came in the door! The teachers and the students had so much fun connecting that they ended up with a great discussion later on.

So students and parents: Everyone matters! Your presence makes a difference! If most of us show up most of the time, we'll have the chance to experience Christ in each other face to face. Let's make 2007-2008 one of the best Sunday School years ever!

"Love your neighbor as yourself"

When a majority of the members of Church of the Epiphany in Herndon voted to secede from the Episcopal Church other members who did not support that action were effectively left without a Church. The Church, and Church family they supported was no longer available to them. Many of them migrated to St. Timothy's and we welcomed the "Epiphany Episcopalians in Exile." However, these faithful and courageous people not only want to maintain their membership in the Episcopal Church and the Diocese of Virginia, but in their own Church, Church of the Epiphany. Our Vestry voted unanimously to offer whatever support we can.

Following a lot of prayer, meetings with other "exiles", discussions with our Bishops, the continuing Episcopalians from Epiphany have elected a new Vestry and set a date to resume their Sunday worship. By the grace of God we will host our neighbors in their worship, in our parish hall at 9:30 am, beginning on July 29th. The time was chosen so we could share coffee hours before and after. So, there will be two simultaneous worship services in our facilities on Sunday mornings at 9:30 am. They will start with a service once a month on the last Sunday of the month. As they grow, the frequency of services will increase to every other week or even every week (Go Epiphany!). Please welcome our sisters and brothers in Christ.

Lay Eucharistic Minister Training

Mature youth and adults interested in reading Scripture, leading prayers, and serving Holy Communion in our worship services are invited to attend a LEM training session in our Sanctuary on Saturday, September 15th at 10:00AM. For more information speak with either of our vergers, Michael Cook or Jane Perry, or our clergy, Fr. Brad or Rev. Leslie.

"Basic Adult Christian Education"

Christianity 101 will be offered this Fall on successive Sunday evenings, September 9th through October 7th, from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm. All adults interested in exploring the basics of the Christian faith, and/or who would like to be Confirmed, Received, or Renew Baptismal Vows when Bishop Ted Eastman visits St. Timothy's on December 2nd, are invited to attend. We will meet in the Narthex.

You're Invited!

What: Summer Cookout Sundays

When: All Sundays in August

Where: St. Timothy's Front Yard

Time: 12:15 pm

What's summer without a cook-out? Miserable! So bring your family and friends and join us for a summer cook-out each Sunday after the 11:00 am service. Hot dogs/buns, condiments, and drinks will be provided; all we ask is for families to bring a side dish to share (salad, chips, dessert, etc.). And if you forget a side dish, please join us anyway (the principle of loaves and fishes will apply!). We'll have some entertainment for the kids (balls, frisbees, etc.) and relaxation for the adults.

We are also looking for families to sponsor a cook-out during the summer. What's involved: bringing and grilling the hot dogs, making lemonade, and setting up. Please sign up in Henry Hall.

Experiences of Grace

Each of our monthly Vestry meetings begins with members sharing stories of God's presence and activity in their lives. It is eye-opening and uplifting. Recalling a challenging portion of Eucharistic Prayer C, "Open our eyes to see your hand [God] at work in the world about us" (BCP page 372) and St. Paul's call to "build up the Body of Christ", I invite all of the people of St. Timothy's to share stories of God and grace to be printed in our newsletter. Please send your "experience of grace" to our newsletter editor, Charlie Clattenburg at chasclat@comcast.net.

THE MISSION OF ST. TIMOTHY'S

As people of God

adopted 01/20/07

we joyfully worship God, spread the WORD of God's love, treasure all people, and serve others everywhere in the name of Jesus Christ.

Therefore, with God's help, we:

open our doors to everyone,
open our hearts in worship,
open our eyes to the Spirit's gifts, and open our arms to embrace God's work.

Back to School Drives—Give Generously Saints Alive.

Just as we hit our summer stride, fall and the back to school season sneaks up on us. As you probably know, many children, even in our affluent community, cannot afford the backpacks or school supplies required by our local schools. The Jeanie Schmidt Free Clinic (JSFC) and Reston interfaith in cooperation with Kids R First are collecting school supplies, goody bag items and backpacks this summer. School supplies and goody bags will be delivered to JSFC. Not sure what to buy? Copies of lists of requested items have been prepared for you and you can find these lists on the Service Ministry bulletin board in Henry Hall. Backpacks in all shapes, sizes and colors are needed and will be delivered to Reston Interfaith, who partners with Kids R First to obtain additional school supplies and resources. Last year we collected over 50 backpacks and enough school supplies and goody bag items to serve over 200 children. Let's do even better this year! Backpack donations are needed by Sunday, August 5. In coordination with this month's Agape offering to JSFC, we'll collect goody bags and school supplies through August. Don't forget to drop off your donations in the bins in Henry Hall. In the coming weeks, you'll be bombarded with advertisements and coupons for these back to school items. Please think of others while doing your own shopping and thank you in advance for your support. Any questions can be directed to Jill Norcross at 703-435-7216 or Patricia Mussante at 703-481-6853.

This is your opportunity to recognize "saints of God, patient and brave and true" – those joyous saints among us at St. Timothy's. You know them – the "saint" who went the extra mile in support of one of our ministries or the "saint" who quietly did the task no one else wanted to do. We are blessed at St. Timothy's with many wonderful servant-leaders who daily give of their talents and time. Let's celebrate them! It's simple -- nominate your "saint" by emailing the editor (cclattenburg@saint-timothys.org) with the name of the person and one or two sentences on your saint's deeds. Your name will not be published. That's part of the fun – you get to be the unknown angel that recognizes saints alive. Who knows? You may be one, too.

NIKKI O'MALLEY for the work she does in our church office maintaining our database, recording the baptisms, weddings, funerals, and attendance for every Sunday. She sends out letters of transfer, welcome and farewell to members and she has dedicated herself to produce membership certificates for all current members to be handed out soon. Nikki always has a smile for you and she just radiates that inner love of Christ.

TERRY JONES for chairing the Communications Committee for the last seven years, mostly as a one-woman band. She tirelessly wrote press releases, called newspapers, and sought out information from the membership about events that needed to be publicized. Through good and bad times in her personal life, Terry always had a positive attitude and now she has stepped down as chair. Thank you, Terry for your dedication and work.

Help Me Help Others

My name is Maggie Perkinson, I'm almost sixteen years old, and I'm going to be a junior at Westfield High School this year. Some of you may know me because I sing in the St. Ambrose Choir during the 11:00 a.m. service. I'm reaching out to you because I will be participating in the Cure Autism Now Walk in Washington, D.C. on October 20, 2007 and I need your help. Please consider sponsoring me as I walk with others to help find a cure for this terrible disorder.

What is Autism? The Autism Society of America describes this condition as "a complex developmental disability that typically appears during the first three years of life and is the result of a neurological disorder that affects the normal functioning of the brain, impacting development in the areas of social interaction and communication skills."

I would describe it as a 13-year-old brother who never plays with you, hardly speaks or pays attention to you; in short, someone who takes more of an interest in objects than in people. Jack requires a babysitter of some sort all the time and we've hired a group of therapists to help him learn outside of his school program. He's a sweet boy, and I love to see him smile. But I can also see that his needs weigh heavily on my parents, so I do what I can to help out and I offer to watch him so that they can get out once in while.

Nearly 1.5 million Americans today are believed to be Autistic, and a new case of Autism is diagnosed almost every 20 minutes in this country alone. Autism is a terrible disorder that appears to be on the rise, and no one really knows what causes it. Funds are needed to help conduct research to find a cure, and that's why I'm walking. Please consider helping me by making a donation. My website is: <https://www.kintera.org/faf/donorReg/donorPledge.asp?ievnt=214840&lis=1&kntae214840=9CF43A834B4140EFA8A22651C4CA608D&supId=140896272>

AGAPE for July/August

Jeanie Schmidt Free Clinic

Hi. I am Bill Sanger, a volunteer for the JSFC. Last month's Word outlined the clinic's operations. It noted that the clinic provides medical attention to 100 adult patients each year and has provided school and sport physical exams to over 1800 children over the past 5 years. These are services provided to low-income families who have no other resource for the treatments provided. The important thing to remember about the clinic is that IT MATTERS. Low-income families are getting medical help otherwise unavailable to them. The clinic literally saves lives.

The adult clinic treats high-blood pressure and diabetic patients on a recurring basis. If it were not for this clinic, many of the patients would be unaware of their medical needs, resulting in a trip to the emergency room, or worse.

The children's clinic is basically a one time only event. Families bring their children for free physical exams. The clinic is also open on Tuesday morning for consultations. The clinic volunteers also visit special events (fairs, etc.) to provide blood pressure testing.

What can you do:

1. Place a donation in an Agape envelope to provide needed funds.
2. Volunteer to provide needed services to those less fortunate. (This could include data entry operations and translating skills as well as helping with the patients.)
3. Provide a meal for the volunteers, who arrive at 5pm to set-up before the clinic opens. (Left-over food is given to adults at the adult clinic.)
4. Knit gloves (mittens) and hats for the children's clinic including items for babies, too young for school, but with brothers or sisters visiting the clinic.
5. Contribute used children's books and stuffed animals for the clinic.

For further information contact Tricia Mussante @ freeclinic@aol.com.

Note: Please make out your checks to St. Timothy's and indicate on the MEMO line: "Agape" Be sure to place the check in a yellow AGAPE envelope.

If you know someone who would be comforted by receiving one of our handmade creations, please see Jackie Clattemburg, Janet Dopsovic, Donna McGrath, Jean Shepherd, Florita Tilden or fill out a form located in Henry Hall.

A Stewardship Message

On giving and loving

The truth comes so often in simple sentences. For example, isn't it true that a person can give without real love or sympathy (maybe to impress others, for example) but one simply cannot love without giving? In fact, one of the clues to how much a person loves is how much he or she gives in terms of time, talent, friendship, service, encouragement and prayers on behalf of others.

Website? What website?

Saint Timothy's website (www.saint-timothys.org) is updated multiple times a week with all kinds of useful information. Usually, the Word is online (on the right side of the home page) before it is delivered to your door. With the Word going ELECTRONIC ONLY in September, the website will be the best place to get it! Here are some other useful things you'll find updated regularly:

- Weekly bulletins (at the top of the calendar page)
- Weekly announcements (on the home page)
- Weekly sermons (click the sermons & lectionary link at the top)
- Announcements of delays or cancellations (inclement weather)
- LEM schedules (under Members/Ministries, LEMs)
- Shawl Ministry forms, for suggesting a shawl or blanket recipient (Members/Ministries, Pastoral Care link)

Remember, you can check the calendar page (it goes up to 3 years in the future!) any time to find out if a room is available for your meeting or event - click "view entire church calendar" to select the month and day you'd like to see. E-mail any website suggestions or content to gzetlan@gmail.com.

Are you missing out on vital information?

When a death and funeral happens in the middle of the week, how can you find out about it? If services are delayed or cancelled due to inclement weather, do you know? Would you like to receive notification of the Word's publication online in your e-mail inbox? Send Administrator Carol Frost (office@saint-timothys.org) an e-mail with a request to be included in the e-mail distribution list. You will receive weekly announcements and emergency messages ONLY (no spam, prayer requests, solicitations for help, or requests for donations), and be kept in the loop on Saint Timothy's activities and members.

Welcome Back Sunday

On September 9 during all 3 services we will once again have all the ministries with displays in Henry Hall. This is your opportunity to meet and talk with members of each ministry about what they do and how you can help. Watch for more news about this important event in the coming weeks in the Bulletin and on the Website.

Pipe Organs 101 will continue next month due to space limitations at this time.

Stephen Ministry News

Our current Stephen Ministry program has been steadily growing since 2005 and includes 17 lay Stephen Ministers and 2 lay Stephen Leaders (additionally, Fr. Brad is a trained Stephen Leader). We are pleased and grateful that Stephen Minister Jim Hendrick will be attending the upcoming week-long Stephen Leader training session in Pittsburgh from July 29 – August 4. We wish Jim well and pray for a safe trip and meaningful experience.

Stephen Ministry is a program through which people are trained to help provide Christian caregiving to members of our congregation and community who are grieving, in crisis, or experiencing other stresses or challenges in life. Stephen Ministers receive 50 hours of initial training and continuing education in providing ongoing, loving Christian care to those who are experiencing life events such as separation/divorce, death of a loved one, illness, hospitalization, loss of a job, loneliness, and many other challenges.

How does Stephen Ministry work? Stephen Ministers do not take the place of the clergy, professional counselors or other health professionals. When a person is paired with a Stephen Minister, the Stephen Minister doesn't try to solve problems. Rather, he or she listens, cares, prays, and helps the care receiver find his or her path to healing and wholeness. The Stephen Minister and care receiver generally meet for about an hour each week for as long as the need is there. Everything a care receiver says to his or her Stephen Minister is kept confidential.

Who benefits from Stephen Ministry? Everybody benefits. Those receiving care from Stephen Ministers benefit because they receive prayer and continuous support throughout the challenge they face. Stephen Ministers benefit through the spiritual growth they experience from being involved in this meaningful ministry. Our clergy benefit because the caring ministry at St. Timothy's is expanded. Most of all you benefit from the knowledge that this special care is available at St. Timothy's.

Sincere thanks for your ongoing prayers and support of our Stephen Ministry program at St. Tim's. If you would like more information on how to become a Stephen Minister, or to receive care from one, please talk to Stephen Leaders Cheryl Brock (703-437-3968) or Jane Perry (703-478-0032), Fr. Brad Rundlett or Rev. Leslie Chadwick (703-437-3790). Should you wish to give a donation to be used towards training and other needs of our program, please make checks payable to "St. Timothy's" and indicate "Account 819 Stephen Ministry Fund" in the notes area.

30 Days; 50 Miles; Closer To A Cure

In honor of the 2.5 million people living with MS worldwide, I have helped to organize a team from St. Timothy's and Herndon United Methodist Church to make a difference by participating in the MS Challenge Walk September 28th thru the 30th. During this three-day, 50-mile journey, hundreds of walkers will travel to the U.S. Capitol to raise awareness and funds to fight MS.

The donations support the National MS Society, which fund more MS research, offers more services for people with MS, provides more professional education programs and furthers more MS advocacy efforts than any other MS organization in the world. The National Capital Chapter of the National MS Society serves more than 18,000 people affected by MS in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area.

We continue train for our 3 Day/50-mile walk September 28-30 and your gift would make the sore muscles a lot easier. The team's fundraising goal is $6,000 and we have raised 10% as of this writing. The MS Society has asked that the donations be made by the 1st of September.

To make a donation, please visit our team or my personal page. This method is the easiest way to donate. If you chose to make a donation of a check (payable to "National MS Society") or cash, please contact me by phone, 703-437-3968, or e-mail - christopher.brock2@verizon.net If you are interested in joining our team, please contact me using the above information. We are looking for people to help on Crew and Fundraising as well as your prayers. Please pass this information along to anyone you think may be interested in helping with this worthy cause.

Updates will be in the Weekly Bulletin and the weekly e-mails. God Bless you for making a difference by supporting our efforts. Sincerely, Chris Brock

From the Music Director

Summer is in full swing and so are plans for our upcoming choral season. The choirs of St. Timothy's will begin their new season on September 4th, preparing for our traditional "Welcome Home" Sunday on September 9th.

We have exciting new opportunities for everyone at St. Timothy's this year. In addition to our St. Cecilia, St. Ambrose, and Handbell Choirs, our new Jubilate Choir will welcome young members ages 8 and older to learn about music, our liturgy, and the Episcopal choral tradition.

Though already established, our St. Cecilia, St. Ambrose, and Handbell Choirs will gladly welcome new members this Fall. Previous musical experience is not required and our choirs are always happy to meet new singers and ringers.

The weekend of September 21-22, our St. Cecilia and St. Ambrose Choirs will meet at the College of Preachers, at the Washington National Cathedral, for their first annual choir retreat. This will give us the opportunity to relax, re-create, and sing together in the beautiful setting of the Cathedral grounds. The retreat will be a fantastic opportunity for new members to get to know current members and will allow time for us to grow and as a group.

Brand new events this year will include a Choral Evensong for the Feast of All Saints on Sunday November 4, at 5:00 p.m. and a Christmas Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols on December 23, also at 5:00 p.m.. Each service will be held at St. Timothy's and will be open to the general public as part of our Concert Series.

As I look towards the coming season with great anticipation, I encourage you all to consider joining one of our ensembles, or to plan on attending what will be uplifting and inspiring new events in the life of St. Timothy's.

—Peter

Bringing An Open Mind to Harry Potter

A couple weeks ago, amid unprecedented publicity for a book, the final volume of the Harry Potter series was released. The Christian responses to the series and its immense popularity have been mixed, ranging from those who flatly condemn Harry Potter as an explicit endorsement of witchcraft to those who praise it by writing tomes on the moral values it supports. The former have fought a mostly losing battle to keep the books out of schools, for fear that exposure to Harry Potter will lead to children embracing witchcraft and Satanism. The latter have created Bible studies that use Harry Potter as something from which to learn moral lessons before moving on to the Bible itself.

I am quite a fan of Harry Potter and made a point of reading the entirety of Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows on the Saturday it came out. I read it not as a way to learn the lifestyle of a wizard or in search of lessons to complement the Bible, but simply because I find Harry Potter enjoyable to read. Personally, I don't think either extreme of rejecting the series without reading it or elevating it to the status of moral guidebook is appropriate. However, I do think the books emphasize moral lessons that are particularly relevant for us today.

The evil of Lord Voldemort and his followers is ultimately rooted in hatred and fear of those of different heritage or species, a refusal to accept that a girl whose parents are mere dentists or an elf brought up as a servant can perform magic more successfully than a wizard descended from a long line of wizards. Such self-important prejudice is certainly prevalent today in a variety of contentious issues. Jesus, it should be noted, did not say 'love your neighbors as yourselves, as long as they are of the same gender, ethnicity, sexuality, etc. as you.' One of Voldemort's servant-allies goes by the name of Pius Thicknesse, a rather transparent reference to religious people who, in blindly embracing specific details of doctrine, aid human evils and fail to act toward the greater good. Jesus' encounter with the Pharisees who thought to condemn him for healing on the Sabbath is typical of his response to this: doing God's good of saving a life is of greater importance than following the Law by refraining from work on a holy day.

As Episcopalians, we are called to use reason alongside scripture and tradition in formulating our faith, and I would encourage all of you who have read or are reading or will read Harry Potter to turn your reason to the text. We should not condemn the books or sing their praises simply because others do, and, in thinking about the books, we should be open to the fact that God has spoken to people who follow Him through far more unlikely media than a boy wizard in a piece of fiction.

A big thank you...

To all the volunteers who made Vacation Bible School a fun, Spirit-filled week from July 16-20! We especially thank our teachers: Melissa Randolph (Pre-K); Linda Jenkins (K-1st); K Scarry and Sarah Newlon (2nd-5th); Jean Lammers (Arts and Crafts); John Adams (Storytelling); Margaret Frost (Music); Dee Henson (Games); and Katie Rakestraw and Stacie Cage (Snacks); Rev. Leslie Chadwick (worship). We thank our assistants: Martha Walker, Jaya George, Christy Thrash, Nicki and Lila Dubishar, Meghan and Christopher Randolph (Pre-K); Amanda Marx (K-1st); Sarah Erazo, Heather Soliday, and Sarah and Hannah Newlon (2nd-5th); Carey Lee, Teresa Clawson-Keeton, Lee Leroy, Donna Cornwell, and Amy Barrett (Arts and Crafts); Heather Peet and Kim Clayborne (Nursery). We give thanks for Marybeth Henry for coordinating all of us! The children had a wonderful time and filled the church with song, laughter, prayer, art, and games all week long!

Quilt Raffle

The Education Ministry will be selling raffle tickets in September and October to raise money for educational programs. A green and pink star-pattern quilt will be raffled off in October. The quilt was made by Robin HerManyHorses a member of the Lakota tribe in South Dakota. Purchasing tickets will support the Lakota tribe as well as the Christian Education programs. Carmela Condro(703-620-1110) and Rebecca Page(703-435-25420) will sell tickets at the coffee hours.

The WORD

for August 2007

St. Timothy's Word is published monthly and e-mailed to members and friends during the last week of each month. It also appears in full color on the website main page under "Downloads".

The deadline for submission of material for the September issue is Thursday, August 16 at 9am.

Questions or ideas for The Word are always welcome as are your comments! You may send the material as an attachment to an e-mail message to: Cclattenburg@saint-timothys.org. The message subject line must mention Word. Photos are welcome. Please identify key people if possible. Articles or letters may be edited for brevity or appropriateness.

See our website for the up-to-the-minute monthly calendar. It's always current and covers several months.

Weekly Bulletins appear on the website no later than Saturday morning for the coming Sunday.

News – Time Sensitive

Editor's Comments: Four more weeks and Summer is over. Don't forget to think about Welcome Back Sunday on 9 Sept. All the Ministries will have displays in Henry Hall for you to see what they do and maybe help them out during the coming year. It looks like the courtyard is finally going to become an active project thanks to MOST and others. They could use your help with a shovel and a strong back. St. Timothy's is blessed with so many people who are actively helping others in the community.
