Fourth Week of Easter

9 a.m.

Information for our First Time Guests

All children are welcome at this church and in all our worship opportunities. The purpose of this service is to help not only children feel comfortable, but parents, too. This is a Come As You Are Mass geared to young children. Please feel free to tend to the needs of your children as are required. There is coffee along with treats at the back of the room you are in (Henry Hall). Please help yourself and join us after the service for a brief fellowship time.

It is our intention to include in our half hour singing, education, movement, and bread and wine. Please know that our goal is to make this easy and relaxing for all involved. Because this is a new endeavor we want to do some experimenting with the format, so we intend to try some different styles. This is part of our attempt to have fun as well as discover the best fit for those who gather here on Sunday mornings. With that in mind you are encouraged to share ideas, make suggestions, and volunteer to be part of the service.

Please know that all baptized Christians are welcome to receive the Sacrament (bread and wine). If you prefer a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest so that I can give you one. Please fill out a Welcome card so that we can send you a welcome packet in the mail this week. The welcome packet provides you with more information about St. Timothy's and the programs and events we sponsor.

I am always available to answer questions or to share coffee. I can be contacted at rbardusch@saint-timothys.org or 703-437-3790. I look forward to getting to know you. Welcome to St. Timothy's.

Blessings, Father Rich

Prelude: We Are on Our Way (MHSO-96)

1 We are on our way— to the prom - ised— land.
 2 A - bra - ham went for a walk with God, who was his friend.
 3 I nev - er thought it pos - si - ble, not in a thou - sand years.

We are on our way— to the prom - ised— land.
 God said, "Look up at all the stars— you can - not see their end.
 But God per - formed a mir - a - cle and took a - way my fears.

Our God will lead and guide— us, he will
 And can you count the grains of sand on the
 He took a - way my bit - ter - ness and—walk a - long be - side— us, our God will lead and shore or in a des - ert land? So ma - ny shall your now I laugh and sing for joy, so dance with me and guide— us as we go to the prom - ised land.

 chil - dren be - so ma - ny you can - not count."
 sing with me; sing a new song of praise and joy.

In the Bulb There is a Flower (MHSO 86)

- 1 In the bulb there is a flower;
 in the seed, an apple tree;
 in cocoons, a hidden promise:
 butterflies will soon be free!
 In the cold and snow of winter
 there's a spring that waits to be,
 unrevealed until its season,
 something God alone can see.
- 2 There's a song in every silence,
 seeking word and melody;
 there's a dawn in every darkness,

- bringing hope to you and me.
 From the past will come the future;
 what it holds, a mystery,
 unrevealed until its season,
 something God alone can see.
- 3 In our end is our beginning;
 in our time, infinity;
 in our doubt there is believing;
 in our life, eternity;
 in our death, a resurrection;
 at the last, a victory,
 unrevealed until its season,
