The Collect of the Day (BCP 357)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure;

through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

A Reading from Proverbs 31:10-31

A capable wife who can find?
She is far more precious than jewels.
The heart of her husband trusts in her,
and he will have no lack of gain.
She does him good, and not harm,
all the days of her life.
She seeks wool and flax,
and works with willing hands.
She is like the ships of the merchant,
she brings her food from far away.
She rises while it is still night and provides food for her household and tasks for her servant-girls.
She considers a field and buys it;
with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.
She girds herself with strength,
and makes her arms strong.
She perceives that her merchandise is profitable.
Her lamp does not go out at night.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her hands hold the spindle.
She opens her hand to the poor,
and reaches out her hands to the needy.
She is not afraid for her household when it snows,
for all her household are clothed in crimson.
She makes herself coverings;
her clothing is fine linen and purple.
Her husband is known in the city gates,
taking his seat among the elders of the land.
She makes linen garments and sells them;
she supplies the merchant with sashes.
Strength and dignity are her clothing,
and she laughs at the time to come.
She opens her mouth with wisdom,
and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.
She looks well to the ways of her household,
and does not eat the bread of idleness.
Her children rise up and call her happy;

her husband too, and he praises her:
 “Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all.”
 Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain,
 but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.
 Give her a share in the fruit of her hands,
 and let her works praise her in the city gates.
 Reader The Word of the Lord.
 People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 1

Robert Knox Kennedy
 (b. 1945)

1 Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked* nor lingered in the way of sinners, nor sat in the seats of the scornful!
 2 Their delight is in the law of the Lord, *
 and they meditate on his law day and night.
 3 They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *
 everything they do shall prosper.
 4 It is not so with the wicked; *
 they are like chaff which the wind blows away.
 5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes, *
 nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.
 6 For the Lord knows the way of the righteous, *
 but the way of the wicked is doomed.

A Reading from James 3:13-4:3, 7-8a

Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth. Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you? You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order to spend what you get on your pleasures.

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you.

Holy Gospel; Mark 9:30-37

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus and his disciples passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, “The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.” But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, “What were you arguing about on the way?” But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, “Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.” Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, “Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.”

Song 13

Sermon

The Rev. Dr. Richard Bardusch

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People, Form III (BCP 387)

Leader Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

People That we all may be one.

Leader Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

People That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Leader We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;

People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Leader We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Leader Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Leader Have compassion on all those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Leader Give to all the departed eternal rest;

People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Leader We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Leader Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

Celebrant Almighty God, you have given your people the true Bread from heaven, your Son Jesus Christ. Grant that our souls may be so fed by him who gives life to the world, that we may be made strong for your service, and share with others what we have so richly received; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession of Sin (BCP 360)

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution (BCP 360)

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace (BCP 360)

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Great Thanksgiving, Prayer A (BCP 361)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. . For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus Hymn S130

Holy, holy, holy Lord

Schubert

Musical notation for Sanctus Hymn S130. The score is in B-flat major (two flats) and 4/4 time. It consists of two systems of staves. The first system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment (bass clef). The vocal line has the lyrics: "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and". The piano accompaniment consists of chords. The second system also has a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has the lyrics: "might, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,". The piano accompaniment continues with chords. The vocal line has a long note for "might," which is held over the piano accompaniment.

God of power and might, heaven and earth are full, full of your glory. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na

The people stand or kneel.

Celebrant: Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread (BCP 364)

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

Commissioning of Lay Eucharistic Visitors

Celebrant: In the Name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts that those to whom you go may share with us in Christ's Body and Blood.

All: We who are many are one body, because we all share in one bread, one cup.

Postcommunion Prayer (BCP 365)

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep our hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The Joy of Living for Seniors Ministry hosted a Dementia Friendly America workshop on September 16th. Here's what one of the participants had to say: Sending you a big THANK YOU for providing us with an excellent education about Alzheimer's. I particularly appreciated how comprehensive the presentation was AND having multiple knowledgeable resource people at the ends of each table to share their wisdom about this. Please communicate my thanks to all those generous ladies who assisted you in this most helpful experience.

Have someone you'd like to thank for contributing to St. Timothy's in some way? Send an email to bookkeeper@saint-timothys.org with the person's name and what they did, and we will thank them in a future bulletin & eNews.

Please join us Sunday, November 4, 2018 at 4:00 pm for the rededication of our refurbished Tracker pipe organ and a special concert. The event continues with All Saints Day Evensong and a reception to follow. You won't want to miss this unique event!

Support LINK in October

Looking for a way to live your faith and serve your neighbors? LINK needs volunteers and donors throughout October. Volunteers are encouraged to assist with deliveries to clients in Herndon, Sterling, and Ashburn. Deliveries are Tuesday thru Saturday and require about two hours, volunteers must be 18 years or older and able to carry moderately heavy grocery bags. Volunteer at www.signupgenius.com/go/904044ea9a7292-20189 On Sunday, Oct. 14, the Service Ministry will sponsor Stuff-a-Truck. Donations of non-perishable food will be collected from 8:30 am to Noon in the rear church parking lot. Volunteers will be available to help transport donations from your vehicle. Donations are also welcome anytime at the collection point in Henry Hall. For more information about both programs contact Shon Beury, shonbeury@aol.com. Thank you for putting your faith to work to support Service Ministry and LINK.

LINK Holiday Program Registration October 5 and 6

Registration for the LINK Holiday Program will be held Friday, October 5, 5 – 7 pm and Saturday, Oct. 6th, 10 am – 12 pm at either Trinity Presbyterian Church in Herndon or Christ the Redeemer Catholic Church in Sterling. Clients must register in person to participate. Proof of address and children's ages are required. For additional information contact LINKHolidayProgram@gmail.com or look for a LINK flyer with details in Henry Hall.

Medicare 101 Workshop.

Open Enrollment for Medicare begins October 15 and ends December 7. Already on Medicare? Or are you planning to enroll for the first time? Learn all you can about the changes to Medicare for 2019 and how to determine the best plan for your needs.

The Joy of Living Ministry (JOL) is holding a free seminar entitled Medicare 101 on Tuesday, October 2 at 11am in Henry Hall. Lunch will be served following the presentation. Sign up on the church website or at the JOL bulletin board in Henry Hall.

Do you like the flexibility of being a volunteer?

Consider becoming a member of St. Timothy's Altar Guild! This ministry plays an important role in our worship. The mission of the Altar Guild is to ensure that the Sanctuary is in order, beautiful, clean and prepared for worship on a weekly basis and for special services. The special fellowship of this team-based ministry is an easy way to support your church and only requires a few hours of your time on the week you are scheduled to serve (approximately every other month for a two-week rotation). Each team is led by an experienced Guild member and training is provided. Service opportunities can be flexible to meet your busy schedule or special interests (flowers, care of linens, Sunday only). Please consider helping the Altar Guild grow and meet our 2018/19 goal of doubling the number of teams who serve. For more information, please contact Carol Sinclair (csinclair83@msn.com or 703-927-3420).

Sacristy Show and Tell

Have you ever wondered why we cover the bread and wine with a cloth on Sunday mornings? Have you thought about the significance of pouring water into the wine before communion? What does it mean? On Sunday, September 23, at 11:30 a.m., we will have a onetime "Sacristy Show and Tell" led by Father Rich. This event is open to everyone who has some curiosity about why we do the things we do. It will be a mixture of history, theology, symbolism, and fun! Come join us for about 30-45 minutes as we tour the church and sacristy to look at the goings on behind the scenes.

Crafters and Vendors Needed

We are looking for crafters and vendors in the community for our November 11th Holiday Bazaar. If you have friends or neighbors who create crafts or sell ready-made products, consider inviting them to register for a table space by emailing Carmela Condro. ccondro@verizon.net.

Have you been thinking of ideas for a theme basket for the Bazaar? A ministry could work together and fill a basket valued at $20-$30 to sell to the highest bidder. For example, the Joy of Living group agreed to contribute to our basket silent raffle. Aren't you curious what their basket will hold?

Collect your excess Christmas decorations which are taking up space in your closets and place them in a Christmas box which you will find in Henry Hall. These decorations will be sold at the Bazaar. All you bakers will also have an opportunity to donate goodies to the Bake Sale table. Buy treats and freeze them for your Thanksgiving guests.

The B&G Post: Choir Space

Way back in 2014 the choir pews were detached from the floor to allow the removal of the organ for refurbishment. The pews were never secured, and an ad hoc usage of the space took over. But tipping of the pews was a constant problem and safety drove us to act to reattach them. Thank Carmela Condro for driving this problem to the ground and also for taking on pew modifications required for the new space.

Also for this space is a set of 6 chairs, on order with New Holland Church Furniture, to match the pews and allow for flexible seating to accommodate guest musicians and choir overflow.

Central humidity control and lighting are the remaining priority tasks. Funding this has come from the balance of the Organ Fund, which will be closed out on the completion of these projects.

Creating a Sustainable Church – The Endowment Fund Ensuring Saint Timothy’s will be around for the next 150 years

Chapter VII- Growing the Endowment Fund

The Endowment Fund at St. Timothy’s is a portfolio of assets where the principal is held in perpetuity with “only” the income generated from the investments being used to benefit the parish. The Fund is not intended to compete with regular annual giving but rather to build a permanent source of future income. Donors like funding endowment funds because it is a way to fund an institution they believe in on a regular and sustainable basis long after they are gone. In effect, donors provide a gift in the present to fund good works at St. Timothy’s for years to come.

Gifts to the Endowment Fund can be large or small and can take the form of cash, personal property, life insurance, and real estate to name only a few. For example, a donor can open a bank account and designate St. Timothy’s as the beneficiary of the interest proceeds; a donor can designate the Endowment Fund as the beneficiary of the proceeds of an existing IRA account; if a donor would like to reduce the effect that Required Minimum Distributions (RMD’s) have on their taxable income, consider a charitable contribution of the required distribution and lastly, a donor can designate the Endowment Fund as the beneficiary of their life insurance policy. In addition to being an enduring statement of faith, contributing to the Endowment Fund can have the effect of reducing your taxes if the proceeds of these investments are paid DIRECTLY to the Endowment Fund.

Moreover, if the donor so chooses, the donor can designate the contribution for a specific purpose. Of course, you should consult with your financial advisor as to the effect these contributions have on your estate plan and/or tax liability. In sum, the extra income derived from a robust Endowment Fund of $500,000 or greater can make a real difference in the life and mission at St. Timothy’s.

Anniversary Historical Trivia

Did you know the name on our parish baptismal font is that of one of St. Timothy's founders? Through the efforts of Mary M. Castleman and the society called The Gleaners much of the funds for the construction and maintenance of the original church and rectory were raised.

Saint Timothy's Prayer List

Long Term Needs: Maria, Sandra, Alfonso, Wallace, Lauren, William & Dora.

Prayer List Volunteer Coordinator: Jill Norcross Email requests to Prayer@saint-timothys.org with the name of the person and prayer request. Request details will only be placed on the Pastoral Care Team listing; first names only will be placed in the bulletin. If you don't have access to email, call the church office & leave your request with the Director of Parish Operations, 703.437.3790 x. 10. Prayer requests, unless specifically requested as a Long-Term Need (in cases of prolonged illness, etc.) will remain on the Prayer List for three Sundays with the exception of Thanksgivings which remain for one week.

St. Timothy's Episcopal, founded on November 1, 1868, is a member of Region V of the Diocese of Virginia, one of the Episcopal Church's 9 original dioceses and the largest diocese in the domestic U.S. The bell from our 1881 church building has been electrified and continues to ring before every Sunday service and major holy day. Our 1870 James D. Moore Tracker pipe organ was restored and reinstalled April 2017.

We have a long history of outreach within and beyond the Herndon/Reston community. We staff The Closet, which had its beginnings at St. Timothy's in the 1970s. The first homeless shelter in Fairfax County began in our Henry Hall in 1984 and became the Embry Rucker Shelter, which we continue to staff. We run a school supply drive and holiday Angel Tree in addition to supporting LINK, Helping Hungry Kids, and Cornerstones, among others. We serve the poorest in our state, our nation, and our hemisphere with yearly mission trips to Dungannon, VA, Pine Ridge Indian Reservation, SD, and Chapoteau, Haiti.

We worship 4 times per week, in English and in Spanish, and we welcome everyone who would like to worship with us and become a part of our community. If you are visiting us, please sign the guest book in the Narthex and introduce yourself to our clergy and vestry members.

Information for Our First Time Guests

All children are welcome to stay with parents in the Sanctuary during worship. However, for parents of children ages 0-3 years who want nursery care, we have a well-equipped and professionally-staffed nursery at the end of the hall nearest the Sanctuary. Each child brought to the nursery is given a number; only the parents of the child can take the child from the nursery. If a parent is needed during worship, the child's number will appear (in red LED's) on the black panels beneath the hymn boards on both sides of the Chancel. Parents, please bring diapers, any snacks, and formula as needed for your child.

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive the Sacrament. If you have not been baptized, please come to the Altar rail for a blessing during Holy Communion (place your arms across your chest to signify your desire for a blessing). If you would like to be baptized, please speak with the clergy after the service. To receive Holy Communion, accept the bread in your hand and place it in your mouth, then sip wine from the Chalice when it is brought to you (guide the Chalice to your mouth please), or hold the bread, dip it in the wine when the chalice comes to you, and place the bread with wine in your mouth. If you are allergic to wheat or are gluten intolerant, please let the person serving bread know to give you a rice wafer.

Saint Timothy's Mission Statement

AS PEOPLE OF GOD, WE JOYFULLY WORSHIP GOD, SPREAD THE WORD OF GOD'S LOVE, TREASURE ALL PEOPLE AND SERVE OTHERS EVERYWHERE IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST.

THEREFORE, WITH GOD'S HELP, WE: OPEN OUR DOORS TO EVERYONE, OPEN OUR HEARTS IN WORSHIP, OPEN OUR EYES TO THE SPIRIT'S GIFTS,
