The Opening Acclamation (BCP 355)

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity (BCP 355)

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria S204

Gloria to God

Old Scottish Chant

1. Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men.

2. We praise thee, we bless thee, we wor-ship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glo - ry, 3. O Lord God, heaven - ly King,

God the Father Al-might - y. 4. O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Je - sus Christ;

O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Fa - ther,

5. that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy up - on us.

6. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, re - ceive our prayer.

7. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Fa-ther, have mercy up - on us.

8. For thou on - ly art ho - ly; thou on - ly art the Lord; 9. Thou only, O Christ, with the Ho - ly Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Fa-ther. A - men.

The Collect of the Day (BCP 357)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

A Reading from Job 1:1; 2:1-10

There was once a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil.

One day the heavenly beings came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the Lord. The Lord said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Satan answered the Lord, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it." The Lord said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man who fears God and turns away from evil. He still persists in his integrity, although you incited me against him, to destroy him for no reason." Then Satan answered the Lord, "Skin for skin! All that people have they will give to save their lives. But stretch out your hand now and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse you to your face.” The Lord said to Satan, “Very well, he is in your power; only spare his life.”

So Satan went out from the presence of the Lord, and inflicted loathsome sores on Job from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. Job took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and sat among the ashes.

Then his wife said to him, “Do you still persist in your integrity? Curse God, and die.” But he said to her, “You speak as any foolish woman would speak. Shall we receive the good at the hand of God, and not receive the bad?” In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 26

1 Give judgment for me, O Lord, for I have lived with integrity; *

I have trusted in the Lord and have not faltered.

2 Test me, O Lord, and try me; *

examine my heart and my mind.

3 For your love is before my eyes; *

I have walked faithfully with you.

4 I have not sat with the worthless, *

nor do I consort with the deceitful.

5 I have hated the company of evildoers; *

I will not sit down with the wicked.

6 I will wash my hands in innocence, O Lord, *

that I may go in procession round your altar,

7 Singing aloud a song of thanksgiving * and recounting all your wonderful deeds.

8 Lord, I love the house in which you dwell * and the place where your glory abides.

9 Do not sweep me away with sinners, *

nor my life with those who thirst for blood,

10 Whose hands are full of evil plots, *

and their right hand full of bribes.

11 As for me, I will live with integrity; *

redeem me, O Lord, and have pity on me.

12 My foot stands on level ground; *

in the full assembly I will bless the Lord.

A Reading from Hebrews 1:1-4; 2:5-12

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. He is the reflection of God’s glory and the exact imprint of God’s very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels. But someone has testified somewhere,

“What are human beings that you are mindful of them, or mortals, that you care for them?

You have made them for a little while lower than the angels;
you have crowned them with glory and honor, subjecting all things under their feet.”

Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them, but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, saying,

“I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.”

Holy Gospel; Mark 10:2-16

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Some Pharisees came, and to test Jesus they asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?” He answered them, “What did Moses command you?” They said, “Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her.” But Jesus said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female.’ For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.”

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.” And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

The Blessing of Animals

O Lord, how manifold are your works.

In wisdom you have made them all.

O heavenly Father, in your wondrous goodness you appointed the birds and beasts of the stable to share in the mystery and the wonder of the holy Nativity of your Son: Guard and bless the animals which you provide for affection and companionship, for comfort and assistance; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Litany for All God’s Creatures

God the Father, Creator of all, Have mercy upon us.

God the Son, Lamb of God, Have mercy upon us.

God the Holy Spirit, descending like a dove, Have mercy upon us.

Holy Trinity, One God, the true Life of all, Have mercy upon us.

For Holy Mary, who cradled her Son in the manger of the ox and the donkey,
We give you thanks.

For Holy David, shepherd of Israel, We give you thanks.

For Holy Elijah, fed by ravens, We give you thanks.

For Holy Jonah, rescued by a whale, We give you thanks.

For Holy Peter, called to repentance by a rooster, We give you thanks.

For Holy Andrew, the fisherman, We give you thanks.

For Holy Paul, spared from the sting of the asp, We give you thanks.

For Holy Jerome, who tamed a lion, We give you thanks.

For Holy George, saintly horseman and slayer of the dragon, We give you thanks.

For Holy Sergius of Radonezh, befriended by a bear, We give you thanks.

For Holy Martin of Tours, called to do God's will by the honking of a goose, We give you thanks.

For Holy Bernard of Menthon, whose dogs rescue the lost in the alpine passes, We give you thanks.

For Holy Julian of Norwich, whose companion was a cat, We give you thanks.

For Holy Francis of Assisi, who preached to the birds and tamed the wolf of Gubbio, We give you thanks.

For holy friends of all that live in earth, and sea, and sky, We give you thanks.

For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, and for peace, health, happiness, justice, and good will among all its creatures, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For God's mercy and protection upon all animals, and especially those that are injured or abused, hungry or deserted, lost or dying, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For grateful hearts and gentle hands and for a spirit of respect and wonder for the animals entrusted to our care, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For God's blessing on the animals who give us their loyal companionship and continually remind us of God's unconditional love for us and all creation, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

Blessed are you, O Lord our God, eternal King, for making every creature that lives in earth and sea and sky. Blessed are you for your servant Francis who called them all his brothers and sisters. By the power of your love, enable every creature to live according to your plan. May all your works for ever praise you, O Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

A Stewardship Prayer

Almighty God, In You we live and move and have our being; all we have comes from You. Help us to embrace and grow in Your Love. Open our hearts, to be thankful and faithful stewards with all You have bestowed upon us. Bless the missions and ministries of St.

Timothy's that make a difference in people's lives here in Herndon and around the world. All this we ask in the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Confession of Sin (BCP 360)

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution (BCP 360)

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

I Will Praise You, O Lord

Mark Patterson

Saint Timothy's Children's Choir

I will praise you, O Lord with all my heart. In every song I sing, I will praise you.

In the things that I do, in the words that I say, I will praise you, O Lord with all my heart.

I will serve you, O Lord with all my heart. In everything I do I will serve you.

In the things that I do, in the words that I say, I will serve you, O Lord with all my heart.

Lord, I will sing of your goodness and grace. Lord I will tell of your glory. Lord I will love you and serve you more each day, with all my heart, O Lord I give you praise.

People        We lift them to the Lord.
 Celebrant      Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People        It is right to give God thanks and praise.
 Celebrant      It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. . For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The people stand or kneel.

Celebrant: Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

General Announcement

Car Wash Oct 14th

The Youth group will be holding their bi-annual Car Wash on Sunday 14th October During the 8am and 10am services. We will be raising funds for the Youth Pilgrimage to New York in the Summer of 2019. Thank you, Sarah Hobson

Greeters

Greeters - people who welcome people both old and new to St. Timothy's church each week An easy task requiring only a smile and a few words of greeting and simple directions to those visiting for the first time.

Probably the easiest volunteer task, but also one of the most important and it would be great to have a few more people offering to fill this role at 8:00 a.m. and/or 10:00 a.m. Please contact Jill Cox if you are interested and able to offer your time once per month at either service or for any special services that may occur during the three-month schedule which is distributed well in advance. My phone number is 703-963-8251 or my e-mail is: jillcoxva@verizon.net.

Matching Gifts

Can you imagine a world where a $100 gift was actually a $200 gift? If your company offers matching gifts, you can make it happen!

As part of their corporate philanthropy, companies both big and small offer to match employee's donations to charitable organizations. It's typically a 1:1 match but depending upon the type of organization and your company's philosophy, they can match 1:2 or even more. "I looked at my company's list of approved organizations and St. Timothy's isn't listed." Contact Fernanda (bookkeeper@saint-timothys.org) and ask for the Employer Identification Number (EIN) which identifies St. Timothy's as a charitable organization. Follow your companies' guidelines to add a new organization to their approved list and submit your donations (pledges) for a matching gift. Feel free to reach out to Maria LaWalt, 703-623-1394, if you have any questions about making your money go farther for St. Timothy's.

Altar Flower Sponsorships

There are several weeks in October and November that are available for people to sponsor the Altar flowers. Simply sign up for the Saturday/Sunday you would like to sponsor via the sign-up sheet posted outside of the church offices (located against the outer glass between the offices and Henry Hall.) After signing up, use a Flower Envelope and drop your donation in the offering on a Sunday or mail it to the church office. Be sure to note Flower Donation on the memo line if giving by check. Your donation must be received no later than 9 a.m. on the Monday prior to the Sunday you are sponsoring. Suggested donation is $50.

Haiti Mission Team Christmas Wreath Sales Coming in October!

On October 21st and 28th, in Henry Hall, the Haiti Mission Team is conducting its annual Christmas wreath sales. Proceeds support the Haiti Mission Team's work in Chapoteau, Haiti. This year, all sales will be directly delivered to your home (no need to wait for pick up at the church). Direct Delivery items include the 22-inch Wreath, the 28-inch Wreath, Garland (two ten-foot lengths of Western Cedar), Centerpiece, Door Swag, the Cone Basket, and the Mixed Evergreen Set (22" Wreath and two ten-foot Garlands). Prices include all Shipping & Handling charges. We can accept checks, cash, and credit cards. As always, thank you for your support! Questions? Email Craig Dubishar (Mission Team Lead) at wcdubi@gmail.com or text to 703.850.1751.

St. Timothy's Viewpoint Book Club

St. Timothy's Viewpoint Book Club is currently reading "Choosing Light" by Viral Dalal. It is an account of Viral's rescue and survival of a massive earthquake in India while visiting his family, none of whom survived. It is a story of determination, prayer and as he phrases it "The search for the Divine." On Saturday October 27th, Viral Dalal will come to the church at 10:00 a.m. to discuss his book and experience and we would like to invite any other people, readers or not, to join us for this talk. At the moment I have a limited number of copies, but local libraries do have some in their cataloged collection and there are probably other sources available. At Viral's request, there will be a collection for the American Red Cross, a group that is always ready to assist in any disaster or time of need and light refreshments will be served during which you may ask further questions etc.

For further information please contact Jill Cox on 703-963-8251 or e-mail: jillcoxva@verizon.net. A sign up sheet will be available on the bookcase when the book exchange takes place on October 7th. Don't forget "Bring on, Take one" on that day.

Save the Date for St. Timothy's 150th Anniversary Celebration

150

Please join us Sunday, November 4, 2018 at 4:00 pm for the rededication of our refurbished Tracker pipe organ and a special concert. The event continues with All Saints Day Evensong and a reception to follow. You won't want to miss this unique event!

Support LINK in October

Looking for a way to live your faith and serve your neighbors? LINK needs volunteers and donors throughout October. Volunteers are encouraged to assist with deliveries to clients in Herndon, Sterling, and Ashburn. Deliveries are Tuesday thru Saturday and require about two hours, volunteers must be 18 years or older and able to carry moderately heavy grocery bags. Volunteer at www.signupgenius.com/go/904044ea9a7292-20189 On Sunday, Oct. 14 the Service Ministry will sponsor Stuff-a-Truck. Donations of non-perishable food will be collected from 8:30 am to Noon in the rear church parking lot. Volunteers will be available to help transport donations from your vehicle. Donations are also welcome anytime at the collection point in Henry Hall. For more information about both programs contact Shon Beury, shonbeury@aol.com. Thank you for putting your faith to work to support Service Ministry and LINK.

Do you like the flexibility of being a volunteer?

Consider becoming a member of St. Timothy's Altar Guild! This ministry plays an important role in our worship. The mission of the Altar Guild is to ensure that the Sanctuary is in order, beautiful, clean and prepared for worship on a weekly basis and for special services. The special fellowship of this team-based ministry is an easy way to support your church and only requires a few hours of your time on the week you are scheduled to serve (approximately every other month for a two-week rotation). Each team is led by an experienced Guild member and training is provided. Service opportunities can be flexible to meet your busy schedule or special interests (flowers, care of linens, Sunday only). Please consider helping the Altar Guild grow and meet our 2018/19 goal of doubling the number of teams who serve. For more information, please contact Carol Sinclair (csinclair83@msn.com or 703-927-3420).

Creating a Sustainable Church

Ensuring Saint Timothy's will be around for the next 150 years

Chapter VIII - Tying Things Together

During the past six months, the Creating a Sustainable Church series has endeavored to explain the relationship among the three funds which make St. Timothy's mission and ministries possible. Now that the stewardship campaign is underway, it seemed appropriate to review the various funds that make possible St. Timothy's current and future financial security as well as its structural preservation.

THE GENERAL FUND: The primary focus of the current stewardship campaign will be to adequately fund the General Fund. The General Fund pays for staff salaries, operating expenses such as electricity, water, and sewer, general maintenance of the structure, Christian Education and many programs which impact people's lives not only in our community but also in our state, country and around the world. Simply put, the more we contribute to the General Fund, the more good works we can accomplish.

THE RESERVE FUND: The many programs that St. Tim's provides require a well-maintained physical facility. To be clear, regular maintenance costs are generally paid from the General Fund. The Reserve Fund pays for costly items that will eventually need replacement or repair such as heating and air conditioning systems, parking lots, roofs, plumbing and major appliances to mention only a few. St. Tim's has not adequately funded the Reserve Fund and consequently has let slip some pressing capital repairs. The amount currently in the Reserve Fund is woefully inadequate should a major expense arise. We run the risk of having the building where we worship and minister to the community fall into a state of disrepair. Failure to maintain an adequate Reserve Fund for major capital expenses could eventually impact the General Fund or necessitate borrowing from financial institutions, both of which would jeopardize St. Tim's ministry. Saint Timothy's must begin setting aside a manageable amount from its annual budget for the inevitable rainy day.

THE ENDOWMENT FUND: To review, the General Fund pays for outreach programs and operating expenses while the Reserve Fund pays for the repair and replacement of large capital assets. The Endowment Fund at St. Timothy's is a portfolio of assets where the principal is held in perpetuity with only the income generated from the investments being used to benefit the parish. In effect, donors provide a gift in the present to fund good works at Saint Timothy's for years to come and long after the donor has gone. Gifts to the Endowment Fund can be large or small and can take the form of cash, personal property, life insurance, and real estate to name only a few. In addition to being an enduring statement of faith, contributing to the Endowment Fund can have the effect of reducing your taxes if the proceeds of these investments are paid DIRECTLY to the Endowment Fund. Moreover, if the donor so chooses, the donor can designate the contribution for a specific purpose. Of course, you should consult with your financial advisor as to the effect these contributions have on your estate plan and/or tax liability.

Campaign for Another 150: St. Timothy's has ministered to the needs of Herndon and our larger faith community for 150 years. St. Timothy's has grown from a farmhouse to a small wooden structure to a large brick and mortar structure that will remain for use by future generations only if properly maintained. We need to continue to provide programs to serve both the people of St. Tim's and the local community. In sum, we need to have the financial resources to strengthen both our mission and outreach and to pay not only for current programs but also those expenses which are required for the continued maintenance of our facility. After much prayerful discussion, the Vestry will be proposing in the months ahead a dramatic recommitment to our faith through reinvestment in our church. It is imperative that we safeguard our buildings and by extension our future. The stronger we are financially, the better we are able to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ to our world. Thanks, Deke

You will receive a reply via email to confirm your submission was received.

150th Anniversary Historical Trivia

St. Timothy's Church was originally known as St. Timothy's Mission. The first worship service was held on All Saints' Day, 1868. After meeting in homes for several years the Mission began meeting in a former cheese factory building that was moved to the corner of Grace and Vine streets. Regular worship services began in the relocated building in October 1871. Eventually, the building was replaced by a new building, St. Timothy's Church, which still stands on the corner of Elden and Grace and is now a Masonic Lodge.

St. Timothy's Episcopal, founded on November 1, 1868, is a member of Region V of the Diocese of Virginia, one of the Episcopal Church's 9 original dioceses and the largest diocese in the domestic U.S. The bell from our 1881 church building has been electrified and continues to ring before every Sunday service and major holy day. Our 1870 James D. Moore Tracker pipe organ was restored and reinstalled April 2017.

We have a long history of outreach within and beyond the Herndon/Reston community. We staff The Closet, which had its beginnings at St. Timothy's in the 1970s. The first homeless shelter in Fairfax County began in our Henry Hall in 1984 and became the Embry Rucker Shelter, which we continue to staff. We run a school supply drive and holiday Angel Tree in addition to supporting LINK, Helping Hungry Kids, and Cornerstones, among others. We serve the poorest in our state, our nation, and our hemisphere with yearly mission trips to Dungannon, VA, Pine Ridge Indian Reservation, SD, and Chapoteau, Haiti.

We worship 4 times per week, in English and in Spanish, and we welcome everyone who would like to worship with us and become a part of our community. If you are visiting us, please sign the guest book in the Narthex and introduce yourself to our clergy and vestry members.

Saint Timothy's Mission Statement

AS PEOPLE OF GOD, WE JOYFULLY WORSHIP GOD, SPREAD THE WORD OF GOD'S LOVE, TREASURE ALL PEOPLE AND SERVE OTHERS EVERYWHERE IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST.

THEREFORE, WITH GOD'S HELP, WE: OPEN OUR DOORS TO EVERYONE, OPEN OUR HEARTS IN WORSHIP, OPEN OUR EYES TO THE SPIRIT'S GIFTS, AND OPEN OUR ARMS TO EMBRACE GOD'S WORK.

Information for Our First Time Guests

All children are welcome to stay with parents in the Sanctuary during worship. However, for parents of children ages 0-3 years who want nursery care, we have a well-equipped and professionally-staffed nursery at the end of the hall nearest the Sanctuary. Each child brought to the nursery is given a number; only the parents of the child can take the child from the nursery. If a parent is needed during worship, the child's number will appear (in red LED's) on the black panels beneath the hymn boards on both sides of the Chancel. Parents, please bring diapers, any snacks, and formula as needed for your child.

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive the Sacrament. If you have not been baptized, please come to the Altar rail for a blessing during Holy Communion (place your arms across your chest to signify your desire for a blessing). If you would like to be baptized, please speak with the clergy after the service. To receive Holy Communion, accept the bread in your hand and place it in your mouth, then sip wine from the Chalice when it is brought to you (guide the Chalice to your mouth please), or hold the bread, dip it in the wine when the chalice comes to you, and place the bread with wine in your mouth. If you are allergic to wheat or are gluten intolerant, please let the person serving bread know to give you a rice wafer.
