The Collect of the Day (BCP 357)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Lessons

A Reading from Nehemiah 8:1-3

All the people of Israel gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had given to Israel. Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshiped the Lord with their faces to the ground. So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 19

1 The heavens declare the glory of God, *

and the firmament shows his handiwork.

2 One day tells its tale to another, * and one night imparts knowledge to another.

3 Although they have no words or language, *

and their voices are not heard,

4 Their sound has gone out into all lands, *

and their message to the ends of the world.

5 In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun; *

it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber;

it rejoices like a champion to run its course.

6 It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens and runs about to the end of it again; *

nothing is hidden from its burning heat.

7 The law of the Lord is perfect and revives the soul; *

the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.

8 The statutes of the Lord are just and rejoice the heart; *

the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives light to the eyes.

9 The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever; *

the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, *

sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.

11 By them also is your servant enlightened, *
and in keeping them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how often he offends? *
cleanse me from my secret faults.

13 Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins;
let them not get dominion over me; *

then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offense.

14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, *

O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

A Reading from The New Testament 1 Corinthians 12:1-31a

Just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body--Jews or Greeks, slaves or free--and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot would say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many members, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But strive for the greater gifts.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel; Luke 4:14-21

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me
to bring good news to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free,
to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."

And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People, Form III (BCP 387)

Leader Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

People That we all may be one.

Leader Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

People That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Leader We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;

People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Leader We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Leader Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Leader Have compassion on all those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Leader Give to all the departed eternal rest;

People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Leader We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Leader Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

Celebrant Almighty God, you have given your people the true Bread from heaven, your Son Jesus Christ. Grant that our souls may be so fed by him who gives life to the world, that we may be made strong for your service, and share with others what we have so richly received; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession of Sin (BCP 360)

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution (BCP 360)

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace (BCP 360)

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Great Thanksgiving, Prayer A (BCP 361)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus Hymn S130

Holy, holy, holy Lord

Powell

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,

God of power and might, hea - ven and earth are full, full of your glo - ry. Ho - in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people stand or kneel.

Celebrant: Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People     Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

General Announcement

Message from the Vestry

The Vestry would like to thank every member of the parish who participated in our short capital campaign survey last month. We collected some very valuable information, and we will be reviewing and addressing your anonymous comments in our upcoming meetings. We are pleased to report that over 84% of respondents indicated they feel connected to the community of St. Timothy's, and that over 90% of respondents support the idea of a capital campaign to address our current funding issues.

We recognize that 16% of the respondents are feeling disconnected from our community, and that there may be others in that category who did not take the survey because of that disconnection. This information is of concern to the Vestry, and we know we still have work to do within our parish. Please reach out to Fr. Rich or any Vestry member at any time if you would like to talk. The Vestry is grateful for the information that has been shared through the survey and will be working to gain a better understanding of the concerns and needs of all parishioners. Catherine Lamoureux

GREETERS - who are these people?

Well, hopefully, they are the people who meet you at the main door of the church who bid you "Good Morning" with a smile and directions if necessary. BUT, for various reasons, their numbers are somewhat reduced and there is a need for further volunteers for both the 8:00 a.m.

and 10:00 a.m. services. If you can help us provide this important service, especially to those who may only be visiting St. Tim's and/or considering becoming members, please contact Jill Cox (jillcoxva@verizon.net or 703-963-8251) as soon as possible. The rotating schedule is issued in trimonthly editions and most people will only be called upon once per month. Of course, the more people we have to call upon, the smaller number of days you will called upon to serve!

A Visit to St. Timothy's Past

On February 10, step back in time to enjoy "A Visit to St. Timothy's Past". Following the 10:00 am service, the congregation is invited to the Masonic Lodge #264 at 820 Elden Street, Herndon, where St. Timothy's held services from the late 1800s until 1960 when the new building was erected. There will be refreshments and short talks by Barbara Glaskas from the Herndon Historical Society and Ann Crocker, St. Timothy's Archivist (retired). You will be able to walk around the building and see the stained-glass window that was a part of the church and remains there today. Plan to join us on February 10 as we continue to celebrate St. Timothy's 150th Anniversary year.

PARKING/TRANSPORTATION: We are asked to park at the Municipal Lot off of Elden Street with entrances from Center Street or Spring Street and walk to the Masonic Lodge (two blocks). Please consider carpooling from St. Timothy's. If you need a ride, please send an email to 150thAnniversary@saint-timothys.org including your name and a telephone number. You can also call Maria LaWalt, 703 623 1394, to arrange a ride and assistance with drop off at the lodge.

Save the Date for Shrine Mont 2019: Save the date for St. Timothy's Annual Parish Weekend at Shrine Mont, happening May 3rd – 5th, 2019. This year's theme is "Christ, Lights, Action: Faith in Film." Tim Allen will be leading the Adult Program again this year. Registration materials will be available in February. We are looking for volunteers to help with planning, especially for the Children's Program. If you are interested in helping with the planning, contact Rob Huizar at rhuizar@gmail.com or 713-569-2859.

TOPS: Come join us this New Year 2019 at St. Timothy's

We will begin a weight loss group meeting weekly on Tuesdays in preschool room B1 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. TOPS is open to women, men and children (7 and older). We offer a network of support groups across the United States and Canada. Annual dues are $32 plus a chapter fee to cover operating costs of $7 per month. Weekly meetings include private weigh-ins and professionally prepared informational programs featuring nutrition, fitness and wellness information. We provide positive reinforcement and motivation to adhere to healthy eating and exercise programs. Contact Florita Tildon for more information at ftildon@aol.com

Joy of Living events for February

Feb 5th, 11:00am to 12:30pm. Gizem Salcigil-White will present a modern approach to the traditions and rituals of Turkish Coffee Houses that date back to the 16th century.

(www.mobileturkishcoffeetruck.org) is a D.C. Nonprofit volunteer initiative she founded in 2012. Lunch follows the presentation. Sign up sheet in Henry Hall. Contact Joyofliving@Saint-timothys.org

Lakota Ministry Planning May 2019 Trip to Pine Ridge

Since the summer of 2003, St. Timothy's has made a journey of friendship to the Lakota Nation on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota, giving a level of relief from daily trials, and providing a commitment to a people so often forgotten. Many of team members have returned to the reservation since the first trip in 2003 and new members have been added. Each year, we are welcomed into the lives of the Lakota people with warm and open arms. We attend to the needs of the people through the efforts of our host, the local Lutheran Pastor. The Retreat Center, where we stay, offers opportunities to interact with the Lakota people in a variety of ways, experiencing their culture and growing in our own faith. If you are interested in going with us this year (from May 18-25, 2019) please contact Tina Pinkard at mapnbuild@verizon.net, 703-758-2583 or Kent Miller at kentova58@gmail.com.

Agape for The Pine Ridge Retreat Center, February 3 and 10

Pastor Kay Ressel from the Pine Ridge Retreat Center will be delivering the sermon on 10 February. She will also give a presentation between and after services about her mission to the Lakota people on the Pine Ridge Reservation. Please join her for the service and the presentation in Henry Hall. Your prayerful donation will go far in addressing the needs of the Lakota people.

150th Anniversary Historical Trivia

From 1874, when she arrived in Herndon Mrs. Mary Lee Castleman contributed significantly to the community and St. Timothy's. She established the Herndon Seminary, a boarding school for boys and girls in 1875. Along with her four daughters a full curriculum was provided, and students attended services at St. Timothy's. In 1889 the Herndon Seminary hosted the first meeting of the Study Club, later the Fortnightly Club still in existence today. Mrs.

Castleman died at the Seminary in January 1891. Her daughters continued to be active, contributing members to the town and St. Timothy's.

Information for Our First Time Guests

All children are welcome to stay with parents in the Sanctuary during worship. However, for parents of children ages 0-3 years who want nursery care, we have a well-equipped and professionally-staffed nursery at the end of the hall nearest the Sanctuary. Each child brought to the nursery is given a number; only the parents of the child can take the child from the nursery. If a parent is needed during worship, the child's number will appear (in red LED's) on the black panels beneath the hymn boards on both sides of the Chancel. Parents, please bring diapers, any snacks, and formula as needed for your child.

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive the Sacrament. If you have not been baptized, please come to the Altar rail for a blessing during Holy Communion (place your arms across your chest to signify your desire for a blessing). If you would like to be baptized, please speak with the clergy after the service. To receive Holy Communion, accept the bread in your hand and place it in your mouth, then sip wine from the Chalice when it is brought to you (guide the Chalice to your mouth please), or hold the bread, dip it in the wine when the chalice comes to you, and place the bread with wine in your mouth. If you are allergic to wheat or are gluten intolerant, please let the person serving bread know to give you a rice wafer.
