Saint Timothy's Mission Statement:

AS PEOPLE OF GOD, WE JOYFULLY WORSHIP GOD, SPREAD THE WORD OF GOD'S LOVE, TREASURE ALL PEOPLE, AND SERVE OTHERS EVERYWHERE IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST.

THEREFORE, WITH GOD'S HELP, WE: OPEN OUR DOORS TO EVERYONE, OPEN OUR HEARTS IN WORSHIP, OPEN OUR EYES TO THE SPIRIT'S GIFTS, AND OPEN OUR ARMS TO EMBRACE GOD'S WORK.

Information For Our First Time Guests

All children are welcome to stay with parents in the Sanctuary during worship. However, for parents of children ages 0-3 years who want nursery care, we have a well-equipped and professionally-staffed nursery at the end of the hall nearest the Sanctuary. Each child brought to the nursery is given a number; only the parents of the child can take the child from the nursery. If a parent is needed during worship, the child's number will appear (in red LED's) on the black panels beneath the hymn boards on both sides of the Chancel. Parents, please bring diapers, any snacks, and formula as needed for your child.

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive the Sacrament. If you have not been baptized, please come to the Altar rail for a blessing during Holy Communion (place your arms across your chest to signify your desire for a blessing). If you would like to be baptized, please speak with the clergy after the service. To receive Holy Communion, accept the bread in your hand and place it in your mouth, then sip wine from the Chalice when it is brought to you (guide the Chalice to your mouth please), or hold the bread, dip it in the wine when the chalice comes to you, and place the bread with wine in your mouth. If you are allergic to wheat or are gluten intolerant, please let the person serving bread know to give you a rice wafer.

Regular church office hours are 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. Monday - Thursday. If you would like to make an appointment to speak with the Rector, feel free to call the office at 703.437.3790.

The Lessons

A Reading from Exodus 3:1-15

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up." When the LORD saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." Then he said, "Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." He said further, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the LORD said, "I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt." But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" He said, "I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain."

But Moses said to God, "If I come to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM." He said further, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'I AM has sent me to you.'" God also said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'The LORD, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you': This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations."

Psalm 63:1-8

- 1 O God, you are my God; eagerly I seek you; *
my soul thirsts for you, my flesh faints for you,
as in a barren and dry land where there is no water.
- 2 Therefore I have gazed upon you in your holy place, *
that I might behold your power and your glory.
- 3 For your loving-kindness is better than life itself; *
my lips shall give you praise.
- 4 So will I bless you as long as I live * and lift up my hands in your Name.

5 My soul is content, as with marrow and fatness, *
 and my mouth praises you with joyful lips,
 6 When I remember you upon my bed, *
 and meditate on you in the night watches.
 7 For you have been my helper, *
 and under the shadow of your wings I will rejoice.
 8 My soul clings to you; *
 your right hand holds me fast

A Reading from 1 Corinthians 10:1-13

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, and they were struck down in the wilderness.

Now these things occurred as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not become idolaters as some of them did; as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to play." We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents. And do not complain as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer. These things happened to them to serve as an example, and they were written down to instruct us, on whom the ends of the ages have come. So if you think you are standing, watch out that you do not fall. No testing has overtaken you that is not common to everyone. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tested beyond your strength, but with the testing he will also provide the way out so that you may be able to endure it.

Creator of the Earth and Skies

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The people turn to face the Gospel.

Holy Gospel; Luke 13:1-9

At that very time there were some present who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. He asked them, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them-- do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did."

Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. So he said to the gardener, 'See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?' He replied, 'Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it. If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

Sermon

The Rev. Dr. Rich Bardusch, Rector

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People, Form III (BCP 387)

Leader Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

People That we all may be one.
 Leader Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
People That your Name may be glorified by all people.
 Leader We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.
 Leader We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.
 Leader Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.
 Leader Have compassion on all those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.
 Leader Give to all the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.
 Leader We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.
 Leader Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

Celebrant Almighty God, you have given your people the true Bread from heaven, your Son Jesus Christ. Grant that our souls may be so fed by him who gives life to the world, that we may be made strong for your service, and share with others what we have so richly received; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Confession of Sin (BCP 360)

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution (BCP 360)

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin. By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus S125

Holy, holy, holy Lord

Proulx

The people stand or kneel.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

March is Ministry Motivation Month

We have four more ministries that would appreciate having you as a regular or occasional member. You will hear about Pastoral Care, Communications, Stewardship and Office Volunteers. You may fill out a ministry form in the Narthex or speak directly to the ministry representative. If you have questions, email our ministry coordinator, Sandy Schanne at sandyschanne78@gmail.com

Fr. Rich challenged us to do "Acts of Love" that help change people's lives.

A Lent Book for Busy People-The Books have come in! If you cannot commit to a weekly study group for this season of repentance and reflection, would you like to join me in reading and eventually discussing "WELCOMING JUSTICE - GOD'S MOVEMENT TOWARD BELOVED COMMUNITY" by Charles Marsh and John M.Perkins? I will have 6 copies ready for sale ($12.00) on Sunday March 17th, plus some other outlines if you are interested. We can exchange viewpoints and information by e-mail weekly and end in six weeks on a date and at a time to be agreed before Holy Week. The book can be ordered online from Amazon.

At present I am communicating with a group in Kentucky which also includes a prisoner in a State prison and hope that this may be of interest to members of St.Tim's and that perhaps we may be able to meet them by Skype one Sunday morning. Please contact JILL COX (703-963-8251) or e-mail: jillcoxva@verizon.net if you are interested and want to know more.

Church Records -In conjunction with our 150th year commemorations etc. we are attempting to update all our records including those of registered members and people who have not or may wish to transfer their membership from another church. To achieve this we are sending letters and forms to all those names which have appeared in previous directories, birthday lists etc., and we would greatly appreciate a timely return in the envelopes provided.

Among the advantages of registration are the privilege of being able to serve on the Vestry and to vote for others to hold office, plus the number of our registered members influences the help we might hope to receive from the diocese and other agencies.

Most of all it declares that we are a united family living with love and concern for each other and the community in which we live and enables us to provide pastoral care when needed and plan programs suitable for each of the many age groups and concerns of our members.

There are some people we see each week for whom we have no information. If you think you are among those, please would you be kind enough to fill in a card on the table just to the left of the doors as you leave the Sanctuary so that we can add you to our mailing list.

Thank you for your cooperation and may God bless us all as we try to do His work day by day.

St. Timothy's Viewpoint Book Club will meet on SATURDAY MARCH 30TH at 9:30 a.m. at Panera, Elden St. Herndon. Update: Lenten Outreach Program - Backpack Meals

Wow, what an incredible second week of our Lenten Outreach Program! Thanks for all your donations and help, we packed 110 meals this week and already have 150 meals to donate to Clearview Elementary School. With 3 weeks left in our program, let's see if we can send each child in need at Clearview home with not just one extra meal for spring break, but two meal packs for the long break. Help us double our goal and pack another 150 meals by April 7th!

As an update, thanks to Wegmans' and your donations we already have enough soup and breakfast items for the additional 150 kits. We have greatest need for shelf stable individual prepared meals, e.g., Chef Boyardee, Dinty Moore, chicken/tuna cracker kits, macaroni and cheese, etc. Please bring these in and stay after the 9 or 10am services to help us assemble meal kits. Making even one kit helps us toward our goal! The kids have been doing a great job making Easter cards to include, too. Please contact Amy Hein with questions or offers of help, amymhein@gmail.com and 719-352-5815.

Thank you everyone for a great response to the first week of our Lenten Outreach Program! On our first Sunday, we packed 43 meals towards our goal of 150, and we still have 4 weeks to go! As an update, we have greatest need for shelf stable individual prepared meals, e.g., Chef Boyardee, Dinty Moore, chicken/tuna cracker kits, etc. Please bring these in and stay after service to help us assemble meal kits. Making even one kit helps us toward our goal! The kids have been doing a great job making Easter cards to include, too.

Also, a big thank you to Wegmans, for their generous donation of food to help us with this program!

As a reminder about the program...During spring break, kids who normally participate in the free/reduced cost school meal programs at Clearview Elementary School, don't have access to this source of food that their families rely on. During Lent, the Service Ministry is asking for your help to bridge this gap and make sure that children in our community go home for spring break with healthy food to eat. We will be collecting food and assembling bags for 5 weeks, March 10 – April 7. Please contact Amy Hein with questions or offers of help, amymhein@gmail.com and 719-352-5815.

150th "Who Do We Think We Are?"

Let's put our memories to work by bringing and viewing photographs from St. Timothy's activities over the years. Please bring your photos and albums to Henry Hall on Sunday, March 24th. Let's reminisce and enjoy old times again while identifying events and participants who have made St. Timothy's "Who We Are!"

Historical Trivia – 150th Anniversary

The Gleaners, a women’s auxiliary, existed at St. Timothy’s from 1875 until the early 1930s. It later became the Fellowship Club. The Gleaners raised money for the church through all manner of suppers, musical and theatrical “entertainments” and, particularly successful, ice cream sales. Beginning in the 1890s ice cream was sold every afternoon during warm months. Not only did the church benefit but the town merchants did too since church members purchased from them the cream, sugar and baking supplies for the ice cream and cake sales. The current bell tower on the former church building cost $100 in 1893/94 and was paid for by funds raised by The Gleaners.

Watch this space for more trivia in coming weeks!

St. Timothy's Episcopal, founded on November 1, 1868, is a member of Region V of the Diocese of Virginia, one of the Episcopal Church's 9 original dioceses and the largest diocese in the domestic U.S. The bell from our 1881 church building has been electrified and continues to ring before every Sunday service and major holy day. Our 1870 James D. Moore Tracker pipe organ was restored and reinstalled April, 2017.

We have a long history of outreach within and beyond the Herndon/Reston community. We staff The Closet, which had its beginnings at St. Timothy's in the 1970s. The first homeless shelter in Fairfax County began in our Henry Hall in 1984 and became the Embry Rucker Shelter, which we continue to staff. We run a school supply drive and holiday Angel Tree in addition to supporting LINK, Helping Hungry Kids, and Cornerstones, among others. We serve the poorest in our state, our nation, and our hemisphere with yearly mission trips to Dungannon, VA, Pine Ridge Indian Reservation, SD, and Chapoteau, Haiti.

We worship 4 times per week, in English and in Spanish, and we welcome everyone who would like to worship with us and become a part of our community. If you are visiting us, please sign the guest book in the Narthex and introduce yourself to our clergy and vestry members.
