The Lessons

A Reading from Habakkuk 1:1-4, 2:1-4

The oracle that the prophet Habakkuk saw. O Lord, how long shall I cry for help, and you will not listen? Or cry to you "Violence!" and you will not save? Why do you make me see wrongdoing and look at trouble? Destruction and violence are before me; strife and contention arise. So the law becomes slack and justice never prevails. The wicked surround the righteous-- therefore judgment comes forth perverted. I will stand at my watchpost, and station myself on the rampart; I will keep watch to see what he will say to me, and what he will answer concerning my complaint. Then the Lord answered me and said: Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so that a runner may read it. For there is still a vision for the appointed time; it speaks of the end, and does not lie. If it seems to tarry, wait for it; it will surely come, it will not delay. Look at the proud! Their spirit is not right in them, but the righteous live by their faith.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 119:137-144

Liebster Jesu

Antiphon: Choir first, then congregation

You, O Lord, are right - eous. Grant me un - der - stand - ing.

137 You are righteous, O LORD, *
and upright are your judgments.

138 You have issued your decrees *
with justice and in perfect faithfulness. [Sing Antiphon]

139 My indignation has consumed me, *
because my enemies forget your words.

140 Your word has been tested to the uttermost, *
and your servant holds it dear. [Ant.]

141 I am small and of little account, *
yet I do not forget your commandments.

142 Your justice is an everlasting justice *
and your law is the truth. [Ant.]

143 Trouble and distress have come upon me, *
yet your commandments are my delight.

144 The righteousness of your decrees is everlasting; *
grant me understanding, that I may live. [Ant.]

A Reading from 2nd Thessalonians 1:1-4, 11-12

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of everyone of you for one another is increasing. Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring. To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

Gradual Hymn (704)

O Thou Who Camest From Above

Hereford

Holy Gospel: Luke 19:1-10

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner." Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much." Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Rev. Charles R. Cowherd

The Nicene Creed (BCP 358)

People: We believe in one God,
 the Father Almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man;
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried;
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please stand or kneel, as you are able.

The Great Thanksgiving (BCP 361)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

Sanctus (WLP 851)

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord

Burnam

Please stand or kneel, as you are able.

Celebrant: Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All: Christ has died.

Chris is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THANKS!

So many folks contribute their time and talents to help St. Timothy's happen!

Please submit any "Kudos" to office@saint-timothys.org so they can be recognized in our church communications.

This week a special thanks goes out to:

Midori Y: for painting the black stairs leading up to the church entrance.

Andy H, Keith S, Hal H: for chain-sawing downed tree limbs across campus.

Carol S: for hosting Coffee Hour last week.

'ST. TIMOTHY'S IS BACK' CELEBRATION SUNDAY!

All throughout October, we have celebrated the shared gifts of time, talent and treasure in our St. Timothy's family. Today we close the Stewardship Campaign with a special Coffee Hour celebration following service. Though the campaign is over, you may still drop of or mail your pledge cards to the church office at any time. If you did not receive a pledge card please contact the church office.

We hope you enjoyed our special series of Adult Forums entitled, I am the Church, You are the Church, We are the Church..., over the past month. They are available on our You Tube page to watch at any time.

"STUFF THE TRUCK" FOOD DRIVE RECAP

We are glad to report that St. Timothy's "Stuff the Truck" event on Sunday was a huge success!! We were able to collect three full SUVs of food and other items for LINK. This is a 50% increase from last year's event.

The demand for LINK's services has increased dramatically in the past couple of years. Starting in November, LINK will be serving families in need 7 days a week, instead of 5. The need for food, toiletries, paper products and cleaning products are ever increasing. Please remember that you can donate food items by dropping them off in the LINK basket in Henry Hall at St. Timothy's.

Along with food items, there is a great need for volunteers, in particular drivers, to deliver food to client's homes. Your commitment, typically 1 to 2 hours, can be made according to what your schedule permits. If you would like to help in this worthy cause and get further information, please contact tombosworth1338@gmail.com.

Once again, thank you St. Timothy's for your generous donations and helping your neighbors who are in need.

MINISTRY FUNDRAISER – Sunday, November 13th

A number of ministries (see below) will be hosting a fundraiser on Sunday, November 13, 2022, in the Narthex following the 8:00 AM and the 10:00 AM services. This is a wonderful way to support the ministries at St. Timothy's while also giving a lovely gift to family and friends.

- St. Timothy's Shawl Ministry and Lakota Ministry will have items that you can choose from many of our beautiful hand-knitted and crocheted hats, scarves, shawls, Afghans, and bags, as well as authentic Native American jewelry, music, paintings, and more.
- The 2023 St. Timothy's Calendar, with each month picturing events in the life of St. Tim's, will also be available for purchase.

*Other ministries interested in this fundraising opportunity should email the church office by November 1st. ****

DAY LIGHT SAVINGS – NOVEMBER 6th

Remember to set you stoves, clocks, watches, and microwaves BACK an hour on November 6th.

COMMUNION in BOTH KINDS

The pandemic brought many disruptions to the normal communion customs but, we have now resumed in offering both the bread and the wine at communion. We have also resumed using the altar rail at both our 8 am and our 10 am services. (Please know there will be a gluten-free chalice that accompanies the gluten-free bread.) If you prefer to continue receiving only the bread, simply cross your arms or return to your seat after receiving the bread.

ST. ISIDORE’S GUILD FEEDBACK

St Isidore Guild wants to know: “How are we doing?”

Dear St. Timothy’s,

We are grateful for the many positive comments on the streaming. Now we are asking for some critical comments. How is the video and audio presentation? Is there anything that you would like changed, added, or deleted?

Also, do you have comments on the in-person services, particularly the audio in the sanctuary?

Please send your comments to stisidore@saint-timothys.org

Did you know that, besides Zoom, the services are streamed live and stored at St Timothy’s YouTube Channel? So you don’t have to watch the services on a tablet or computer, you can watch them in higher definition on your smart TV.

Relatedly, St. Isidore’s has also put together a couple of videos for both our website and the online services as a way of welcoming newcomers to St. Timothy’s. Be on the lookout for these in the coming weeks!
